Representing a multi-million dollar investment and creating well-paying employment opportunities

Sunbelt Solomon announces plans to open facility in Elba

Sunbelt Solomon Services ("Sunbelt Solomon" or "SSS"), a leading provider of customized and sustainable electrical power solutions and services, Tuesday, March 14, announced plans to open a service center in Elba, Alabama that will offer electrical transformer repair and recycling, field services and equipment rental operations.

Sunbelt Solomon will invest over $5 million to launch the facility, which will generate new employment opportunities, providing an economic boost to the Southeast Alabama community.

"Today is a great day for Elba," Mayor Tom Maddox said Tuesday morning. "A little over nine months ago, we began talking with the leaders of Sunbelt Solomon. This has been a team project as City of Elba leaders, Elba crews, members of the Elba Industrial Development Board, Wiregrass Economic Development, and Sunbelt Solomon had all been working together to make it possible."

Alabama Governor Kay

Ivey joined in the announcement on Tuesday, saying Sunbelt Solomon is one of the world's largest providers of commercial and industrial electrical distribution equipment.

"At Sunbelt Solomon, we strive to help our customers achieve their sustainability goals within the electrical space," said Gus Cedeño, CEO of Sunbelt Solomon. "Elba is the first greenfield facility we've built in several years, affirming our strategy of getting closer to our customer base and developing the human capital wherever we operate. SSS is excited to provide new, well-paying jobs and career paths to the Elba community while continuing the growth and expansion of our business."

Cedeño further said Sunbelt Solomon is committed to providing an excellent customer experience. He said by expanding the company's footprints in Alabama it helps increase the company's ability to provide fast and dependable services to valued customers.

"Sunbelt Solomon is a welcome addition to Alabama's dynamic business community," Governor Ivey said. "The company has made a great choice by locating this new operation in Coffee County, and I know the hard-working people of Elba will help make it a long-lasting success. This is just another reminder that Sweet Home Alabama is a top state for business."

With opportunities spanning from $18/hr. to $37/hr., the average salary range for roles offered at Sunbelt Solomon's new facility will be 45% higher than the annual salary range for manufacturing roles in Coffee County, as reported by the Alabama Department of Labor. Sunbelt Solomon offers a competitive suite of benefits to its employees, including health care coverage, annual incentive compensation and opportunities for advancement.

As part of the project, Kansas-based Sunbelt Solomon will base its operation in an existing building at 2450 Industrial Boulevard in Elba, where it will install manufacturing equipment and outfit its office. The facility will officially open its doors for business in June.

It is forecasted to open with over 50 employees. A recruitment event will be hosted in the coming weeks for community members to learn about the career opportunities offered and hiring process.

"We're doubling down in the state of Alabama right now," Cedeño said. "In addition to our greenfield build in Elba, we just acquired Holland Industrial Services in Bay Minette. These two substantial investments in Alabama we trust are clear signs to our customer service commitment in the southeast for our utility, renewable, oil & gas,

Miss Elba Queens recognized at city council meeting

Elba city leaders recognized the newly crowned 2023 Miss Elba Queens during the city council meeting Monday evening, March 13, at Elba City Hall.

Mayor Tom Maddox presented each queen with an "I Love Elba" pin to attach to her sash. Seven young ladies were crowned Miss Elba during pageants held Saturday evening, Feb. 25, at Elba High School. The queens will represent Elba at events, ribbon cuttings and more throughout the year.

After several months of the recycling program being non-operational in Elba, council members voted Monday night to officially close the program for the foreseeable future and to send correspondence to the Alabama Department of Environmental Management (ADEM) letting that entity know the city had stopped all operations and removed all solid waste and recyclable materials for proper disposal from the City of Elba Recycling Center. The city's registration with ADEM for a recycling program will be terminated.

As for the city's trash pickup program, city clerk Sally Bane said the process has seemingly begun moving quicker. She said the city crews improved from 5-weeks to 3-weeks in being able to make a complete loop around the city picking up trash this last time. She also noted progress is still being made to get more city employees qualified as CDL-licensed equipment operators. However, regarding the trash pickup, Bane said there are still problems with residents putting garbage items out for trash pickup. She said the city will buckle down more on this issue in the future as trash pickup matters improve.

Bane said the Woodland Drive and Putnam Street culvert projects completed "under budget" and those repairs seem to be working well.

The Elba Chamber of Commerce will host a Legislative Breakfast at 7:30 a.m. on Friday, April 21st. This event will be held in the social hall of First Baptist Church Elba. Those interested in attending should contact the Elba Chamber of Commerce for more information.

Daylight saving time/standard time debate. A number of states have already enacted a permanent DS bill that would immediately activated if and when the feds change the federal law. Alabama lawmakers voted down a permanent DS bill at least twice in recent years. There are pros and cons for such an action. Some people like the partial DL savings, some want it permanent while others want it banned completely. We lean to the permanent idea, but would also sleep well if it is done away with completely.

It is exciting to get the announcement of a long rumored new industry coming to Elba. This will instantly add 50 well-paying jobs to the community. Sunbelt Solomon promises to be a real plus for the area. Our conversations with company reps during the past few days only solidifies our initial reaction of being pleased with the new development. This 100-year-old company has a dozen other sites, from California to Maine, where they repair, recycle, service (and rent) electric transformers and switchgear. Their closest site to Elba is their recently purchased facility in Bay Minette (down in Baldwin County). They are not a "shade tree" operation but one with plans to invest some five million dollars in the local operation. Heck, if we were a 'gillion' years younger, this would probably be an interesting challenge for us!!

The Alabama legislature is in a 'special session'. That means they are limited in the subjects they can discuss and pass laws about. The governor called this one to 'spend money'. It is some 'excess' funds so the special session will get this money spent. Also the state's education fund has a huge surplus – something that is heaven sent for a politician. They will not follow our advice, but here it is anyway. Fund some underfunded things in Alabama schools, but not with all the funds. Pay off some bond issues borrowed in previous years and if there is any left set up a reserve fund for those ultimate down years and THEN cut the taxes that created those excess funds.

Several weeks ago the local Methodist church reverted to the old Cokesbury song books of our youth – back in the time we actually thought we could sing! It was heartwarming that first Sunday as hearing those hymns flooded our memory bank with good vibes. Being afraid to ask how long those little brown song books will be the 'go to' book for our singers, we just listen and smile each Sunday at the memories they generate within our head.

Be safe, wear your mask when appropriate, social distance, wash your hands AND get the shot(s) and/or boosters (the newest one)!

It was a rainy day last Sunday in the land of Yonder, but Cuzin Lou Lou and Sister still had to make a trek to Walmart to pick up some much-needed items.

This trip was made after church on Sunday, and that proved to be a good thing because all the goodness generated in Lou Lou's heart and mind from the worship service were needed to help her deal with the crowd at 'ole Wally World! It also helped that Sister took Lou Lou to lunch prior to the shopping excursion.

Without a fully belly and grateful heart/mind, the trip could have turned out to be a disaster for Lou Lou and Sister!

It seemed that many of the folks making their way through the aisles of the store had either not gone to church that morning or did not pay attention to the words spoken by their pastor...it was the only explanation for the rudeness being exemplified by the masses.

It did not take long for Lou Lou and Sister to decide they needed to quickly grab the things that were "must purchase at Walmart" items and get out of Dodge! Lou Lou has no doubt that "buggy rage" is just as alive and well as "road rage" these days – shoppers were cutting one another off in the aisles, blocking the way for others, and just moving any way and every way creating a chaotic scene in the store. And...the looks being passed from one shopper to another implied, "today's not the day...keep moving!"

The moment Lou Lou exited the store, it was like a heavy weight had been lifted from her shoulders and the tension in her muscles immediately began to calm! Once she and Sister made got inside the vehicle, she shared a revelation with Sister – When used together, the most offensive words ever spoken are, "We need to go to Walmart!"

Once Lou Lou and Sister made it back home Sunday afternoon, and all items purchased has been put up where they needed to be, Lou Lou snuggled with Little Bean on the couch and did what should be done on a rainy Sunday afternoon – she napped!! And...a good nap it was...probably because Lou Lou was exhausted from her trip to Walmart!

If Lou Lou is lucky, it will be many days before Sister makes her return to Wally World or better yet, she can just stick to online ordering and pickup!

Until next time...God Bless and Keep Smiling!

commercial, and industrial customers."

Greg Canfield, secretary of the Alabama Department of Commerce said growing companies like Sunbelt Solomon are discovering that Alabama offers abundant opportunities that will help them expand the scope of their operations.

"I look forward to seeing Sunbelt Solomon put down roots in Elba and watching the operation thrive," Canfield said.

Jesse Quillen, executive director of the Wiregrass Economic Development Corporation said the new jobs, new capital investment and new energy provided by Sunbelt Solomon are all incredibly important and attractive for Elba citizens, but he said he believes the most important and welcome attribute that Sunbelt Solomon brings to Elba is its tremendous corporate culture, as exhibited throughout this process.

Mayor Tom Maddox also praised the City of Enterprise for its support on the project. Sunbelt Solomon will temporarily locate its new operation in the Enterprise incubator while the Elba facility is being prepared.

"We are thrilled to have a new corporate citizen in Sunbelt Solomon," Maddox said. "The jobs and investment that will be provided brings a great deal of energy and excitement to our community. I want to thank the Wiregrass Economic Development Corporation for short-term use of the business incubator while the Elba location for Sunbelt Solomon is renovated."

Elba City Clerk Sally Bane said the integrity and character demonstrated by everyone involved in the months-long process of getting Sunbelt Solomon to Elba has been exemplary and only confirms to Elba leaders what an asset Sunbelt Solomon will be in the community.

"The addition of quality jobs and capital investment they will bring are what Elba needs to grow," she said. "We are looking forward to continuing to grow with Sunbelt Solomon, and we welcome them home to Elba."

The Unique Needs of Widowers

While women and men both feel grief over the loss of a spouse, widowers often have a unique set of needs. This typically stems from the fact that while a woman may have many friends she can lean on following the loss of a spouse, a man may have lost his best friend and closest companion all at once.

Perhaps the saying "Women mourn - men replace" has its roots in intense loneliness caused by a lack of previously established close friendships. It has been frequently asked whether a widower would be as driven to hurriedly replace his wife and best friend if he had someone with whom he could share his grief.

Men face unique problems as widowers. Many of their everyday needs were probably provided by a wife. Because they are not as likely to be able to take care of themselves as widows, their health and well-being can be severely affected.

Widowers may be immersed in feelings they never knew existed and may exhibit painful physical and psychological symptoms. Because women are more frequently the primary caregiver to children, men may face changes in their relationship with their children, resulting in feelings of isolation.

Because of their unique needs, widowers, particularly those who lack close friends and family with whom they can talk about their loss and grief, are urged to attend support group meetings or find a counselor with whom they can share their feelings.

CHURCH & LOCAL NEWS

PASTOR'S CORNER

by Kit Johnson, Pastor
Elba First Baptist Church

"Who is a God like You, who pardons iniquity and passes over the rebellious act of the remnant of His possession? He does not retain His anger forever, because He delights in unchanging love. He will again have compassion on us; He will tread our iniquities under foot. Yes, You will cast all their sins into the depths of the sea." -Micah 7:18-19

"When I bring my sins to the Lord Jesus, He casts them into the depths of the sea-forgiven and forgotten. He also puts up a sign, 'No Fishing Allowed!'" - Corrie ten Boom

Last Saturday, an individual amongst a few men asked, "How would you define true forgiveness?" As we took turns sharing what we knew of forgiveness from God's Word and personal experiences either forgiving or seeking forgiveness from others, each explanation had something in common. Everything we know about forgiveness and what we are trying to accomplish through forgiveness is founded in our understanding of who God is. He alone demonstrates perfectly what true, complete forgiveness is.

We could fill the entire Elba Clipper attempting to list everything the Bible teaches about forgiveness and the infinite scenarios which warrant the application of said truths. But let's look back at Corrie ten Boom's quote. She alludes to a problem many of us have. We trust that God has forgiven us. We often believe that we have been forgiven by others. But Satan does not want you to forget your sin. He wants that sin to make you feel guilty. Guilt prevents us from being effective for the Kingdom of God.

Mathew West's song entitled "Forgiveness" ends this way, "I want to finally set it free. Show me how to see what your mercy sees. Help me now to give what you gave to me. Forgiveness."

If you have repented, God has forgiven you. Now, ask God to help you forgive yourself where guilt no longer holds you back from being who God created you to be!

Who Holds the Future?
Many have heard the name Nostradamus. Although he was born in 1503, his followers claim this man predicted future events, including World War II, the atomic bomb, the assassination of John F. Kennedy, the moon landing, and the 9/11 terror attacks. Nostradamus' followers continue to pore over his quatrains - his collection of four - line prophecies - in an attempt to figure out what else the French astrologer seems to have successfully predicted. Nostradamus wasn't received as kindly by his contemporaries, however. Some of his critics claimed he used sleep deprivation and hallucinogenic drugs to put himself into an altered state. Others labeled him incompetent because of his unorthodox methodology. Nostradamus' continued popularity points to human anxiety and curiosity about the future, especially regarding the end times. But Revelation 5 reminds us that our future is in the hands of the worthy Lamb. When the Lamb took the scroll, its contents became secondary to the rightful worship of the one holding it. Much more important than knowing the future is knowing the one who holds our future. - L.G.S.

NEW HOPE SENIOR CENTER EMPLOYEES RECEIVED CPR TRAINING recently. The training was held inside the community room at the Coffee County Commission building in New Brockton, and New Hope Senior Center director Conzuella Banks said it was very informative and helpful. Captain Raymond Sessions provided the training. Special thanks to Patti Culver for all she is doing to assure Coffee County senior centers are prepared and informed. She also provided wonderful food for this training.

WTBF-FM of Troy supports Luncheon Pilot Radio Day

The Luncheon Pilot Club of Enterprise held its annual Radio Day on WTBF-FM 94.7 in Troy. Special thanks to the station manager and DJ Chase Robinson in helping make this a very successful fundraiser.

The Luncheon Pilot Club is part of the International Pilot Organization whose main emphasis is on helping people affected by brain related disorders. Wiregrass merchants and individuals have once again shown their support for this major fundraiser by sponsoring radio ads that were read over the air by Luncheon Pilot members or individuals who just contributed funds to this rewarding and worthy cause. This is the major fundraiser for the club and funds raised will be given back to the community to such as Habitat for Humanity, Brain Minders skits, Special Needs Christmas Party, Banana Bingo at Enterprise Health and Rehabilitation Center, Project Lifesaver, Wiregrass Wounded Veterans Committee, Disabled American Veterans Transportation, sponsoring a Coffee County resident to attend Camp ASCCA (Alabama Special Camp for Children and Adults), sponsoring an individual to attend TBI (Traumatic Brain Injury) Camp, Coffee County Arts Alliance, Hand Up Enterprise, Retirement Center Christmas Project, Sheriff's Posse and WEPS (Wiregrass Emergency Pregnancy Services).

Project Lifesaver is the premiere project for the Luncheon Pilots and is funded by the Luncheon Pilot Club to assist the Sheriff's Department Reserve Deputy Calvin Bookout to manage this program by monitoring fifteen clients who are wearing locator bracelets.

Each year club members conduct an educational program for second graders in the five elementary schools in Enterprise titled «Brain Minders - Protecting Your Brain for Life.» which impacts the lives of more than 650 students. Using hand puppets, members stress the importance of wearing helmets when biking, skateboarding or playing any kind of sports to protect their brains.

SPORTS NEWS

Views From

The Pressbox

By Ricky Mularz, Sports Editor

Our grandson Lawson was at the house one afternoon last week and I was told I needed to help him with his math homework. That sent chills down my spine almost immediately, and when I was told the lesson dealt with parallelograms I told him I was no help and recommended he wait until he got back home and let his Mom help out. Heck, it took going to spell check on the computer before I could even spell it, much less help teach it.

For what it is worth....

*** The Elba Tigers continued their struggles last week and are still looking for their first win of the season after dropping games to Luverne and Goshen. On paper the Tigers appear to have a solid lineup at almost every position and have two or three pitchers with experience. However, so far they just haven't been able to put seven solid innings together and as a result are winless as spring break approaches. I may miss my guess, but I still think this bunch is way too talented to continue losing and once they get a win under their belts I look for them to take off and possibly challenge for a spot in the playoffs.

*** The Elba Lady Tiger played four games last week and posted three wins, including a pair of area wins, as they continued to surprise a lot of folks with their sudden success. The team has only two seniors and at times starts four sophomores and a seventh grader. However, they play hard every time they take the field and seem determined to post a winning season and return the program to its successful ways of the past. The players and coaches obviously only care about what happens one day at a time, but the future certainly looks bright for softball at Elba High.

*** Taking a look around the area revealed the current season has been somewhat of a struggle for many area teams. In baseball, New Brockton is the only team with a winning record, while Zion Chapel, Kinston and even Brantley have continued to struggle as they get ready to enter area play. I still look for all the teams to hang around and be in the mix when post-season play begins, but they all will have to improve and settle in in a hurry. Over on the softball field, the girls from Brantley have to be the team to beat in 1A circles despite recent blowout losses to Wetumpka and G.W. Long, while Zion Chapel is quietly enjoying a winning season and may be a team to keep an eye on in Class 2A, Kinston is getting better and better and appears a solid post-season bet, and New Brockton is beginning to find its footing and should be just fine in a matter of weeks. It looks like the best is yet to come for area teams in both sports.

*** The hottest ticket in sports this spring and summer has to be for an Atlanta Braves game! The Braves announced this week that they would stop selling season tickets to ensure fans that may want single game tickets can still get in to watch a game. Season ticket sales have already set a record and before the season even starts Braves front office officials are reporting that season ticket sales will guarantee the team over three million fans in attendance for the games. Fans that still want to purchase a season ticket will have their names put into a drawing for the 2024 season. Yep, it looks like 'Hot-lanta' will be rocking this summer.

*** In closing.... I saw the football coaches at Elba High out cutting grass on the football field and the practice field on afternoon last week and that has to mean that spring training can't be far away. The Tigers will be on everyone's 'watch list' this season after posting an 11-1 record a year ago and returning 4 Star running back Alvin Henderson along with nine starters on both sides of the ball, and Elba fans will get a chance to see the Tigers in action late in the spring when they host a three-team jamboree with Opp and Goshen. I know it's still baseball and softball season, but football season is never too far away here in south Alabama.

ZION CHAPEL CROSS-COUNTRY RUNNER SIGNS WITH ESCC... Zion Chapel senior Cole Charles (center) signed a letter of intent Monday, March 13, to join the Enterprise State Community College cross-country team after graduation this Spring. The signing ceremony was held at the Zion Chapel gymnasium, and seated (in the photo) with Cole are his parents, Paul and Christina Charles. In signing with ESCC, Charles became the first Zion Chapel Rebels cross-country runner to sign a letter of intent to continue competing in the sport at the college level.
